

Up-to-date job printing at reasonable prices. Thos. Bain and wife are down from Harney. A complete stock of groceries at Fred Haines & Co. R. R. Sitz was a business visitor from Lawen during the week. Go to Fred Haines & Co. for toilet and shaving soap—its cheap. —ONION SETS—ONION SETS—Schwartz & Budelman have them. New arrivals—of Summer Dress Goods, see Schwartz & Budelman. If you wish to be located on a good homestead, see F. M. Jordan, the surveyor. Good clean seed barley may be obtained at the Martin Bros. ranch north of Burns. Great big bunches of laugh awaits you at the minstrel show Friday night. Geo. Greeley had his collar bone broken last night as a result of a scuffle with another young man. Herman Ruh was in this city one day this week, having brought up cattle to deliver to Wm. Hanley. Henry Hamilton is over from Diamond looking as well as ever and says he never wintered latter. Look Out—Get the safety incubator, now it runs without a lamp. See W. T. Smith about it, Burns Oregon. Mrs. Robt. Drinkwater will soon have a complete stock of Millinery open in the Jorgenson building. Watch for announcements. The Times-Herald is informed that the Mothers' Club has secured 29 new members to the library and prospects are good for many more. P. G. Smith will leave Monday for the railroad in charge of about 300 head of cattle. The stock belong to himself and Judge Levens. A good six room residence and four lots, also a two seated covered hack for sale. Inquire of Mrs. Robt. Drinkwater, Harney Ore. There is considerable talk of reorganizing the stock association and The Times-Herald may have something of interest regarding the matter next issue. If you want to get the political news up to date and enjoy a couple of hours of real fun you should attend the minstrel on Friday night. A library benefit remember. Neckties, shirts, men's underwear, overalls, suspenders, boots—greatest bargains yet offered—Fred Haines & Co. We must move goods to get ready for new stock soon to arrive. The contracting parties are well known to our readers and have the best wishes of all their friends. Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Baker brought their little child in from Buck creek Tuesday for medical treatment. Dr. Marsden found the little one suffering from stomach trouble, but the patient is much improved at this time. Grant Sturtevant and family are late arrivals from Oklahoma and are here to remain permanently. Mr. Sturtevant is a brother to Joe Sturtevant, our local mill man. Another Oklahoma family accompanied them, but we failed to learn their names. Married—In this city Tuesday evening, Robt. E. Reed and Mrs. Olive Sagers, Justice Jameson performing the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Reed have gone to Lawen where they will make their home. The happy couple have long been residents of this section and have many friends who join The Times-Herald in best wishes.

THE ELECTION. The Times-Herald regrets its inability to give its readers anything definite regarding the result of yesterday's primary election. Returns are very incomplete at this time and practically nothing is known of the result other than the county candidates outside of Burns precinct. Even Island and Poison Creek precincts did not bring in returns that could be relied upon. In Happy Valley the polls were not opened as the ballot boxes failed to reach there. So far as heard from the republican ballots show M. Fewnick in the lead for judge, R. T. Hughes for sheriff, the latter's nomination is conceded; D. Jameson is the nominee for treasurer without a doubt. The democratic ballots show Joe Rector far in the lead for judge with every indication of his being the nominee. J. R. Jenkins has a majority so far for commissioner, but it is possible that L. N. Stalard will cut it down and possibly be the nominee. The returns show a number of surprises and those precincts not yet heard from may contain still more. However, the only doubt seems to be for judge on the republican ticket and commissioner on the democratic ticket. The Times-Herald will give the vote in detail by precincts next issue if the returns are in.
